Instruct Biennial Structural Biology Conference

22nd - 24th May, 2019

Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, Spain

The fourth Instruct Biennial Structural Biology Conference will take place in Alcalá de Henares, Spain. The historical Alcalá de Henares is, in addition to the birthplace of Miguel de Cervantes, where the Universidad Complutense was founded in 1293, one of the oldest universities in the world. The social programme of the meeting will include a visit of the city, a gala dinner and an extensive opportunity to network with the Instruct Structural Biology community.
